

Important Instruction regarding the registration process for AIBE-XIX

Dear Candidates,

These instructions are intended to provide important information regarding the registration process, Important Instruction regarding the registration process for candidates who do not possess an enrollment certificate or are in the final semester of a 3-year or 5-year integrated LL.B. degree course with no backlogs.

Instructions:

1. Registration Form:

- The link for filling out the registration form remains the same for all candidates.

I am a final-year, final-semester law student with only my final semester exams remaining, and I have no backlogs from previous semesters.

OR

I have completed my final semester exams, have no backlogs, and am awaiting my final results.

OR

I am a law graduate who has not yet enrolled with a State Bar Council. I have/have not obtained my LL.B degree (strike-off, whichever is not applicable).

OR

I am a law graduate who is currently employed in job/service and have either not enrolled or surrendered my enrollment due to my employment. I understand that if I sit for the AIBE and pass, I will be eligible for enrollment for a period of six months. I further understand that after this six-month period, I will be required to reappear for the AIBE if I wish to continue practicing law.

- If you fall under this category, please select the "Yes" option.
- If you are already enrolled and possess an enrollment certificate, please select the "No" option.

2. Undertaking Submission:

- Candidates who are not yet enrolled with the State Bar Council but are law graduates and have obtained law degree, or are in the final semester of their 3-year or 5-year LL.B. degree course with no backlogs, or law graduates who are currently employed in some service or job but are not yet enrolled or have surrendered their enrollment on account of their job, such candidates must submit an undertaking.

- You can download this undertaking from the AIBE website or find it on the last page of the application form.
- After completing the undertaking, you must upload a scanned copy (not a mobile photo) of the signed document.

Note:- Candidates who are already enrolled and have an enrollment certificate must upload their self-attested enrollment certificate. The undertaking form is only for candidates who do not possess an enrollment certificate or are in the final semester of a 3-year or 5-year integrated LL.B degree course with no backlogs.

3. Document Submission(Marksheets Of LL.B):

- Final Semester Candidates:
 - If you are in the final semester of your 3-year or 5-year integrated LL.B. degree course, you must attach self-attested, scanned copies (not photos) of your marksheets for each semester.
 - For 3-year LL.B. degree course candidates, submit marksheets from Semester-I to Semester-V.
 - For 5-year integrated LL.B. degree course candidates, submit marksheets from Semester-I to Semester-IX.
- Law graduate without law degree:
 - If you have passed your LL.B. degree course but have not yet obtained your Law degree, you must attach self-attested, scanned copies (not photos) of all your marksheets.
 - For 3-year LL.B. degree course candidates, submit marksheets from Semester-I to Semester-VI.
 - For 5-year integrated LL.B. degree course candidates, submit marksheets from Semester-I to Semester-X.

Please ensure that all the required documents are properly scanned and uploaded in the prescribed form/undertaking. Failing to do so may result in the rejection of your application.

If you have any questions or require further clarification, please contact to the AIBE Helpdesk for detailed guidelines.
