

INDIAN MARITIME UNIVERSITY
(A Central University, Govt.of India)

May/June 2015 End Semester Examinations

SEMESTER – I, B.TECH (MARINE ENGINEERING)

COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH AND SOCIOLOGY (T 2101 / T 1101)

Date:05.06.2015

Time:-3 Hrs

Max.Marks:100

Pass Marks:50

Section I
(Communicative English)

Group A

1. Find out the NOUNS and their types from the following sentences. (2x3=6)
 - a) His name is Raja.
 - b) Be strong like a man.
 - c) Our class went to play cricket today.

2. Find out PREPOSITIONS from the following sentences. (1x4=4)
 - a) I swim across the lake.
 - b) The ice cream with chocolate is mine.
 - c) He sits below the tree.
 - d) There is a pen inside the box.

3. Change the voices of the following sentences. (2x5=10)
 - a) The box is filled with pencils.
 - b) The fried rice was cooked by Ruby.
 - c) I remember my father taking me to the zoo.
 - d) Who is creating this mess?
 - e) The room was destroyed by fire.

Group B

(Answer any THREE from the followings)

4. Write short notes (any TWO) (5x2=10)
 - a) Interpersonal communication
 - b) Communication gap
 - c) Semi-official letters
 - d) Agenda

5. What is communication? Write down any TWO importance of communication. Point out the barriers of communications. (2+3+5=10)

6. Write a technical report on cause of mechanical failure in ship engine. (10)

7. You recently bought a laptop. But unfortunately, there are some technical problems in its functioning. Write a letter to the Customer Care Manager of Laptop Company with a request to replace the laptop. (10)

8. Discuss the process of communication with the help of a diagram. Discuss and differentiate between verbal and non-verbal communication. (5+5=10)

9. Annual sports of the college will be held on 01.06.2015. Draft a notice asking the students to participate in the annual sports. (10)

Section II
(Sociology)

Group A

10. State whether the following years of enactment are TRUE or FALSE. (1x5=5)
- a) Factories Act → 1944. b) Employees State Insurance Act → 1948.
c) Workmen's Compensation Act → 1923. d) Industrial Disputes Act → 1974.
e) Minimum Wages Act → 1984

11. Match Column A with Column B. (1x10=10)

Column A	Column B
(a) Physiological needs	(a) Recruitment
(b) On the job	(b) Productivity
(c) Asking to apply for a post	(d) Need hierarchy theory
(d) Relation between output and input	(d) Welfare Officer
(e) 500 or more workers	(e) Training
(f) Cost of living index	(f) ESI Act
(g) Medical benefit	(g) Selection
(h) Motivator and Hygiene Factors	(h) Minimum Wages
(i) A method to choose most suitable candidate	(i) Industrial Disputes Act
(j) Conciliation Officer	(j) Two Factor theory of motivation

12. Fill in the blanks. (1x5=5)
- a. Welfare provisions for workers are provided in
- b. Funeral expenses amounting to Rs. 10,000/- is payable to the dependents as per
- c. Industrial Disputes is defined in
- d. Workmen's compensation is payable if personal injury is caused to a workman by accident or of employment.

Group B
(Answer any THREE from the followings)

13. Write short notes (any TWO) (5x2=10)
- a. Ethics b. Value c. Code of conduct d. Justice
14. Write in brief various social problems and their effects in India. (10)
15. Briefly discuss the impact of technology advancement and automation on our society. (10)
16. What is Local Self Government? Discuss its importance. (10)
17. Define and distinguish with example between 'Capitalism' and 'Socialism' (10)
18. Write a note on the 'Constitution of India'. (10)