Direction : Read the poem and answer the questions given below (141 to 149) :

A thing of beauty is a joy forever It's loveliness increases, it will never Pass into nothingness; but will keep A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

Therefore, on every morrow, are we wreathing

A flowery band to bind us to the earth,
Spite of despondence of the inhuman death
Of noble natures, of the gloomy days,
Of all the unhealthy and o'er darkened ways Made for our searching : yes, in spite of all.

Some shape of beauty moves away the pall.
From our dark spirits, such the sun, the moon

Trees old and young, sprouting a shady boon

For simple sheep, and such are daffodils
With the green world they live in; and clear rills

That for themselves a cooling covert make Gaiety the hot season : the mid forest brake Rich with a sprinkling of fair musk-rose blooms;

And such too is the grandeur of the dooms
We have imagined for the mighty dead;
All lovely tales that we have heard or read;
An endless fountain of immortal drink,
Pouring unto us from the heaven's brink.
