

UPSC Mains Syllabus General Studies Paper 4

Ethics and Human Interaction:	The purpose, factors, and outcomes of ethical behavior in people; the dimensions of ethics; and the application of ethics in both personal and professional settings. The importance of family community and educational institutions in instilling values may be seen in the study of human values, which draws lessons from the lives and teachings of great leaders, reformers, and administrators.
Moral and political attitudes	Social influence Persuasion are all aspects of attitude that include its content Structure Function Relationship to cognition and behavior.
Civil service aptitude and core principles include honesty	Objectivity Non-partisanship Dedication to public service Empathy Tolerance Compassion for the weaker groups
Emotional intelligence concepts and their benefits and use in governance and administration	Contributions from moral philosophers and thinkers in India and around the world. Public Service Values and Ethics in Public Administration Status and Issues Ethical Issues in International Relations and

	Funding
Corporate Governance; Laws, Rules, Regulations, and Conscience as Sources of Ethical Guidance. Accountability and Ethical Governance	Probity in governance includes the idea of public service The philosophical underpinnings of governance and integrity Information sharing and transparency in government The right to information Codes of ethics and conduct Citizen's charters Workplace culture Effectiveness of service delivery Use of public resources Challenges posed by corruption